INDIANA UTILITY
REGULATORY COMMISSION

You are hereby notified that on this date the Presiding Officers make the following Entry in Cause Nos. 42500, 42500 S-1 and 42500 S-2:

On January 21, 2004, John R. Harrington ("Applicant") filed a Verified Application to Practice Before the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission Pro Hac Vice ("Application"). The Applicant seeks approval, pursuant to 170 IAC 1-1.1-7 and Rule 3, Section 2(a) of the Indiana Rules for Admission to the Bar and the Discipline of Attorneys, to appear and practice before the Commission in these proceedings on behalf of WorldCom, Inc., a party to these proceedings

170 IAC 1-1.1-7(c) states:

An attorney not admitted to practice before the supreme court of Indiana in good standing but admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, or the highest court of any other state or territory of the United States, in good standing, may appear at the discretion of the presiding officer before the commission upon filing a verified petition for limited admission to practice before the commission that meets the requirements of the Indiana Rules for Admission to the Bar and the Discipline of Attorneys Rule 3, Section 2(a). Upon being granted limited admission to practice before the commission, an attorney must appear with cocounsel admitted to practice in Indiana. Pending approval of the petition, such an attorney may be permitted to appear, at the discretion of a presiding officer, at any hearing. Local counsel shall sign all briefs, papers, and pleadings in such cause and shall be jointly responsible therefor.

The Application states that the Applicant is a member in good standing of the bar of the State of Illinois, is admitted to practice before that State's highest court, and is a specialist in complex telecommunications issues. The Application also states that there are no disciplinary proceedings presently pending, nor has one ever been brought, against the Applicant, who agrees to be bound by Indiana's Rules of Professional Conduct. The Application further states that Robert K. Johnson, an attorney admitted to practice in Indiana, will serve as co-counsel. Robert K. Johnson has previously entered his appearance in these proceedings on behalf of WorldCom, Inc.

The Presiding Officers have reviewed the Application and have determined that it appears to satisfy the requirements of 170 IAC 1-1.1-7(c) and Rule 3, Section 2(a) of the Indiana Rules for Admission to the Bar and the Discipline of Attorneys. Applicant, John R. Harrington, is hereby granted admission pro hac vice to practice before the Commission in these proceedings, with local counsel for WorldCom, Inc. serving as co-counsel.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
